HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY

CHAPTER 6

TOWN OF ORLEANS

The town of Orleans, in Orleans Township, claims the distinction of being the oldest laid-out town in Orange County. The original plat of the town was recorded at Salem, Ind., while Orange was a part of Washington County. and Indiana yet a Territory. It was dated March 11, 1815, and signed by William McFarland and Samuel Lewis as owners of the land, and by Samuel Alexander as Surveyor. This plat shows the original town to have six streets running east and west, named Vincennes, Main, General Coffee, Washington, Jackson and Wayne, and seven running north and south, named Cherry, Kerr, Alexander, Sugar, Congress, Lemon and Lindley. There were forty-eight full squares of eight lots each and one tier of eight half squares, on the north side, making in all 416 lots. The following is a copy of the record:

Plan of the town of Orleans, Indiana Territory, as laid out within the county of Washington, upon the southwest quarter of Section 30, of Township 3 north, of the base line in Range 1 east, of the second principal meridian line, of the lands directed to be sold at Jeffersonville. References: Each lot in the town of Orleans, Indiana Territory, is 80 x 160 feet, and each street 60 feet wide, and each alley 10 feet wide. Congress Square is composed of Lots Nos. 167, 168, 169, 170, 195, 196, 197 and 198 to remain for the purpose of erecting any building for county, Territory or State, or deemed necessary by citizens of the town. The streets and alleys to remain as open and common highways forever, excepting where they pass within the limits of Congress Square where they become a part. No part of Congress Square ever to be appropriated as a burying-ground. March 11, 1815.

Test SAMUEL ALEXANDER WILLIAM McFARLAND.

Surveyor. SAMUEL LEWIS.

Two months before this time, on the 8th of January, Gen. Jackson had achieved his famous victory over the British at New Orleans, and in honor of that event the patriotic founders and pioneers of the new town christened it Orleans. The first house on the present site of the town is said to have been built by Samuel Lewis, and as saw-mills had not yet found their way to this frontier, it was made of logs. It was used as a tavern for several years, where the wants of weary pilgrims to this Western World could be supplied, and where at night before the blazing fire they were beguiled with marvelous tales of the new country's wonders and advantages. Soon after this came John Steers, who launched the first commercial bark on this ocean wilderness. And a tiny craft it was, too. Built of logs and stocked with the pioneer's necessities, and gaudy notions to attract the occasional savages that yet lingered reluctant to quit their early hunting ground, what a contrast this first store of Orleans presents to those of the present day. It is said that the first blacksmith was William Redfield, who came among the earliest settlers and followed his trade in all its branches, from gun-mending to horse-shoeing. The first grave at Orleans was dug in 1816, for a man named Festerman, a German, whom the icy hand of death had rudely seized. The reign of Hymen extends equally to the remote dwellers on the frontier and to the luxurious resident of the city. The first matrimonial act in the infant town was that of John B. Moyer and a Miss Misenhamer, in the year 1816, and it was an undoubted case of "love in a cottage." The first schoolhouse was a log one, built it is said, in 1823, and Mr. S. B. A. Carter was the first teacher. In this house and under this instruction many of the children were educated in the primitive manner of the time, and they afterward came to be among the best and influential citizens of their community.

GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

In 1817 Mr. Lewis built a small brick house and Messrs. Hardin & Kimbley erected the first frame in 1822. Being situated in a happy and fertile district the new town grew rapidly, and for a time bid fair to be one of the principal places in southern Indiana. Merchants came with new stores and new goods, mechanics brought their skill and industry, and the professions had here their early representatives. Two men who went far toward building up the commercial interests of the town were Benjamin and Ezekiel Blackwell, two brothers, that were long among the foremost men here. As early as 1823 they were actively engaged in merchandising. William McLane conducted an early store. How different was the method of carrying on business in that day from the ways of the present. Then the hunter or farmer brought in his peltry or products of the soil, and received in exchange for them the merchant's wares. Each merchant bought all kinds of produce, and when sufficient was received they were hauled by wagon to Louisville. Now the producers sell their products to men who make a specialty of a particular kind, and get cash in return. They then go to stores and buy for cash what they want, where only that article is kept. In 1823 Benjamin Webb was doing quite an extensive mercantile trade, and in 1827 Kimbley & Moyer and Burton Sutherland were in business, the latter having one of the old-time "groceries" that bring many pleasing recollections to life's gray-haired veterans, who still haunt their boyhood's scenes and dwell with emphasis on the bygone sobriety of mankind. Another of these groceries was kept by Freeman Wright, from 1829 to 1831, and perhaps longer. Others who engaged in keeping these stores, where liquor was the order of the day, were Abner and Jeremiah Wilson and Samuel Hogen, in 1832, Thomas Busick in 1840 and several years prior, James Ware in 1839 and before, and William Teal in that year. In 1840 were Gabriel P. Busick and William Field, Thomas B. C. Taylor in 1844, and L. J. Kimbley in 1846. A considerable excitement was created in 1848, when one of the Busick men applied to the County Commissioners for a license. Several of the citizens of Orleans remonstrated, but after a hot contest a license was finally granted. Other merchants have been Moyer & Hasler, 1828-29; Henry Lingle, 1831; Charles Glover, 1834; Fulton & Bradley, 1838; Bradley & Allen, 1842; J. C. Busick, 1842; J. & J. B. Moyer, 1839; B. & J. B. Webb, 1839-40, and many others of prominence, among whom may be mentioned Col. William McLane, who afterward went to Lawrence County and became one of its foremost merchants; the firm of Walker & Richards, that succeeded Bradley & Allen, about the year 1854; Lynch Brooks and John G. Huff.

EARLY SETTLERS OF JASPER COUNTY

THE FIRST TO ARRIVE BY MRS. CHARLES MARTIN

Kirbyville Banner, Kirbyville, Texas 75956, Wednesday 17, 1971

Colonel Samuel S. Lewis, who was born in 1784 in Virginia, went as a young man to Indiana where he remained until about 1825 when he moved his family to Ouachita Parish, Louisiana. In his certificate of character, he states that he came to Texas in March 1832, but that his servants had been in the province since January 1830. This was probably to prepare fields and buildings for the arrival of the family. The Lewis Plantation was on Indian Creek between the communities of Bevilport and Peachtree, but his post office address was Zavalla in Angelina County.

The other part of his grant was east of Cow Creek and south of the Biloxi community. The Convention of 1832 named Lewis to the Subcommittee of Safety, Vigilance, and Correspondence for the Snow River (later Bevil) District, and he represented Jasper County as Senator in the First and Second Congresses of the Republic.

He died February 10, 1838, and was buried in the family cemetery near his home. The title "colonel" was acquired through his participation in the battle of Nacogdoches, but it must have been complimentary rather than military, for, according to George L. Crocket in his "Two Centuries of East Texas" the Texian troops numbered only seventeen.

Colonel Samuel S. Lewis, early Texan
Founder of Orleans, Indiana

Samuel S. Lewis, son of John and Sarah Lewis, was born in Virginia, Jul 4, 1784. He was married to Sarah Lemaster, Daughter of John and Sarah (vest) Lemaster on August 7, 1804 in Henry County, Kentucky. She was born in Virginia March 12, 1785.

By or before 1806 Samuel and Sarah moved to Clark County, Indiana. Sarah was a sister to James Lemaster who married Nancy Kimberlin, and it is possible that Samuel and Sarah were at Kimberlin blockhouse; this has yet to be proven.

We know the Lewis family remained in Clark County until after 1810, then moved to Orange County where Samuel laid out the town of Orleans, Indiana. The original plat shows it was signed by Samuel Lewis and William McFarland on March 1, 1815. As owners of the land. The Battle of New Orleans (Jan 8, 1815) was the inspiration for the choosing of the name. In 1965 Orleans, Indiana celebrated its sesquicentennial. Their history records it to be the Oldest town in Orange County and States:

"The first house was built by Samuel Lewis, and, as sawmills had not yet found their way to this frontier, it was made of logs, and was used as a tavern for several years, where the wants of the weary pilgrims to this western world could be supplied, and where at night before blazing fire they were bequiled with the marvelous stories of the new country's wonders and adventures. In 1817 Samuel Lewis built the first brick building in the town."

During the War of 1812, Samuel Lewis' service has been difficult to determine. When his widow, then living in Newton County, Texas, Applied for Bounty Land she stated her husband's papers had been stolen by Indians. She was elderly and her memory did not server her well. She knew her husband had served from the spring of 1813 to the spring of 1814. She thought perhaps his company was commanded by Captain Zacharia Lindly (or Curry) in the regiment under the command of Col. Wm. McFarland, or a Col. Depaw. It is possible he was in Captains Craven's Company which was mustered in for one years service from may 1, 813, or he may have served later in the Indiana militia, as many did.

Lewis and McFarland had many land transactions in Indiana. We find that on May 21, 1814 Samuel Lewis received a paten from the President of the United States, and in Salem, Indiana on March 3 1815, Samuel Lewis, esq. Of Washington County sold it to Wm. McFarland of Jeffersonville, Indiana for $196.25. Other deeds show they bought and sold property for several years.

Later both families moved to Louisiana where they sojourned before entering Texas. Records in Ouachita Parish, Louisiana show Samuel Lewis sold all his remaining land in Orange County, Indiana to his Brother James on August 5 1828. The Lewis' third daughter, Anne, was Married to Lewis Donaho while the family was in residence in Louisiana. Marriage records from the same parish state the ceremony was performed by her father, Samuel Lewis, as Justice of the Peace of Ouachita Parish, February 3, 1831. Samuel's eldest son, Martin B. Lewis, had established his family by this time and his first born son John Kenny Lewis arrived in the same parish on July 15, 1826

The Lewis family moved to Texas between the 1st and 5th of March, 1838. The Mexican government required a certificate of character of the new entrants. Lewis produced testimony that his servants and other property had been in Texas since January, 1830; that he and his wife had two children still living at home. It was dated January, 1833 Wm. McFarland sighted the certificate as Alcalde (a Mexican term for magistrate).

By 1835 the struggle for independence by the Texans was under way. Samuel Lewis served as Lt. Colonel in Melton McQueen's Company with Bullock as colonel in the Battle of Nacogdoches and was in the Battle of San Antonio de Bexar in 1835 during the Texas Revolution. He and his son Martin B. Lewis received Bounty land for their servic es. He was Addressed as Colonel by his Texas Friends.

The McFarland and Lewis families continued their friendship. A daily Journal kept by Thomas S, McFarland, a son of William, was published in San Antonio, texas in 1942. Under the title of McFarland Journal. An interesting entry is found dated January 30th, 1837: (jasper county, Texas)

"Visited Col. Lewis yesterday morning at Dr. Lawhon's (where he was a visitor). Was pleased to see the old gentleman . obtained some information concerning the acts of congress, of which he is a member. He has presented me with a pipe of German manufacture, Made of porcelain, gold, and buffalo horn, and well made in every part. I was much pleased with this handsome mark of friendship and token of esteem.. Col. Lewis left here this morning for home with Madam Lewis."

His life ended in the service of this newly founded Republic. He was a representative of the first consultation and he served as a representative from jasper as the First and Second Congress of the Republic of Texas in 1837 and 1838. He died near the close of the second session. His death is recorded in a ledger kept by his eldest son, Martin B. Lewis and reads:

"Samuel S. Lewis, Senator, Died on his own Plantation in his own dwelling house in jasper County Feb 10th, 9 Oc. PM AD 1838, being 53 years 7 months 6 days of age".

LEWIS, SAMUEL S. (1784-1838). Samuel S. Lewis, early Texas settler and congressman, was born to John and Sarah Lewis on July 4, 1784, in Virginia. He married Sarah Lemaster in Henry County, Kentucky, on August 7, 1804. They moved to Indiana, where their seven children were born, five in Indiana Territory and two after it became a state. Lewis founded Orleans, Indiana, and served with the Indiana militia in the War of 1812. In the mid-1820s the family moved to Ouachita Parish, Louisiana, where Lewis became justice of the peace. He sent his slaves and some of his property to the Mexican state of Coahuila and Texasqv in 1830 and followed with his family in 1832. By 1835 he and his sons, Martin Baty Lewisqv and John Taylor, had settled their families in the Bevil municipality on Indian Creek in what became Jasper County. Lewis served as lieutenant colonel in the battle of Nacogdochesqv in 1832 and participated in the siege of Bexarqv in 1835. He was a Bevil delegate to the Consultationqv of 1835 and represented Jasper County in the First and Second congresses of the Republic of Texas.qv He died on February 10, 1838, at his plantation in the Bevil district.

From New York to The Republic of Texas

The William Herrin, John Taylor Lewis, Asa Lafitte Stark, and William Hawley Stark families of Newton County, Texas were the first generation descendants of Daniel R. Stark and Nancy Hawley. Their children named William Hawley, Sarah Mariah who married John Taylor Lewis, Prudence Jane who married William Herrin, and Esahl "Asa" Lafitte were living in Newton County by the time Texas was accepted into the Union in December of 1845.

Nancy Hawley, her father, Samuel Hawley, and the four children were living in Floyd County in 1826 and also living in this area of Indiana was the Samuel S. Lewis family who moved to Ouachita Parish, Louisiana around 1825. Nancy and her family soon followed and settled at the head of Bayou Macon near the Arkansas border in Northeast Louisiana. Ouachita Parish was located in northeast Louisiana with its eastern border being the Mississippi River. Samuel Hawley transferred his Revolutionary War Pension payments to the Vicksburg, Mississippi District in 1828 and December 28, 1828 Nancy's daughter, Sarah Mariah, married John Taylor Lewis, the son of Samuel S. Lewis, in Ouachita Parish. Both of these events suggest Nancy Hawley and her children were in Ouachita Parish by 1827 or 1828.

Samuel S. Lewis was born in Virginia on July 4th, 1784 and married Sarah Lemaster on August 1st, 1804 in Henry County, Kentucky. In the year 1806, he moved his family across the Ohio River from Henry County into the Indiana Territory where he and Sarah had seven children. Samuel was the founder of Orleans, Indiana, located in Orange County, and served in the Indiana Militia during the War of 1812. He moved his family to Ouachita Parish, Louisiana around 1825 where he served as Parish Justice of Peace.

In 1829, John Bevil moved into present day Texas and settled between the Naches and Sabine Rivers. With the permission of Lorenzo de Zavala, he was given a grant to allow 500 families to settle in the region. One of those attracted to move to Texas was Samuel S. Lewis who sent his slaves in 1830 to settle within this Mexican Land that became known as Bevil District and then moved his family to the region in 1832 with his sons Martin Baty Lewis and John Taylor Lewis and their families following their father to Texas.

On April 6th, 1830, the Mexican Government passed a law which was intended to halt immigration from the United States into Mexico. Tensions between the settlers and the Mexican garrison Commander at Nacogdoches, Jose de las Piedras escalated and he ordered the settlers to surrender their arms, which was refused and aroused the anger of the settlers in the region. On August 2nd, 1832, a group of settlers attacked the garrison forcing the Commander and his men abandon the Fort and leave the town. Piedras and his troops were pursued by a small number of men who harassed the Mexicans until the soldiers surrendered and gave up Piedras to the settlers. The Mexican troops were returned to Nacogdoches where Piedras was paroled and allowed to return to Mexico City. The three hundred soldiers captured were marched to San Antonio by James Bowie and discharged. This action removed the Mexican Military presence from East Texas which then encouraged the Texans to later revolt in 1836. Samuel S. Lewis served as lieutenant colonel in the battle of Nacogdoches in 1832 and later participated in the siege of Bexar in 1835. His son, Martin Lewis was a sergeant major in the battalion commanded by James Whitis Bullock, and he also participated in the battle of Nacogdoches. In November and December of 1835 he was Captain of a company of East Texas volunteers that took part in the siege of Bexar. John T. Lewis served as a Second Lieutenant in his brother Martin's cavalry company during the siege at Bexar. All three men served in the Texas Revolutionary War.

Around 1830, William Hawley Stark married Elizabeth Zachary, daughter of Benjamin Zachary and Elizabeth Odom of St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana. At about this time, it is believed William Hawley purchased acreage in Ouachita Parish [Could have been Carroll Parish, formed in 1832 from the eastern part of Ouachita Parish] most likely using the money he received as a gift from his Uncle William Stark. One would presume he received his share when he reached twenty-one years old in 1830. His mother, grandfather, and other siblings, Prudence Jane and Asa Lafitte Stark, may have lived with him and his new bride for the Vicksburg Register newspaper (Vicksburg, Mississippi), dated July 22nd, 1835 reported "Another Revolutionary Soldier is no more--Died at the upper settlement on Bayou Macon in the Parish of Carroll, State of Louisiana, on the 4th day of June 1835. Samuel Hawley, aged about 80 years, a native of the State of Massachusetts, and once a soldier of the Revolutionary army. Mr. Hawley was a pensioner and lived for several years back thus secluded and remote with his child and respected by all who knew him." Since Samuel only had one child, Nancy Hawley, it would probably be correct to speculate from the newspaper report he lived with his daughter. The above property sold by William in 1848 was located at the head of Bayou Macon or probably in the area of the "upper settlement on Bayou Macon." This property either belonged to William or was inherited from his grandfather after he died. No documents have been found, as yet, on how this property came into William Hawley Stark's possession.

William Hawley Stark and Elizabeth had children born in Louisiana named Daniel L. Stark [Born in 1833] and Samuel Hawley Stark [Born in 1836] while the first child born in Texas was James Terry Stark in 1839 which reveals the family moved to Texas during or after the year 1836. It is believed William may have purchased a league of land before the Texas Revolution but had not moved to the property from Louisiana until after the War. One of these grants was for a league of land [4,428 acres].

After the Texas Revolution, the Republic of Texas Congress declared heads of families living in Texas on March 2, 1836 could apply for a square league [4,428 acres] of land with no requirement to live on the land. To encourage settlement, Congress also offered immigrants arriving between March 2, 1836, and October 1, 1837, a grant of 1,280 acres for heads of families and 640 acres for single men. Therefore, it is possible William was a resident of Texas before March 2nd, 1836 and applied for a league of land, which was granted. In any event, he was a resident of Texas before 1839 for he was elected Justice of the Peace, Sabine Beat 4, of Jasper County on February 4th, 1839.

William Herrin, Sr. was born in 1807 in the Mississippi Territory. [Note 1] He was the son of Abel Herring. Before 1825, William married a woman whose name and family is unknown. It is believed William was one of the children reported in the Ouachita Parish, Louisiana 1820 census living in the home of Abel Herring and William's first marriage may have occurred in either Ouachita Parrish or Chicot County, Arkansas. The Herring land was located very close to the Arkansas line and often people from that area would go to Eudora or Lake Village to conduct business. William Herrin was living in Ouachita Parish in 1830 for recorded in the census that year was "William A. Herring, age 20-30 years old, with a spouse, age 15 -20 years old, one male child under five and a daughter under five years old." The son under five years old was probably James Herrin, born in 1826 or 1827, according to his tombstone and census records, who will be discussed later. The daughter

Kirbyville Banner, Kirbyville, Texas 75956, Wednesday 17, 1971

Martin B. Lewis, was born in Indiana, as were all his children. Already the head of a family when he arrived, Martin's league is on the east bank of the Angelina River, adjoining William Jourdan on the north and his father on the west.

A surveyor by profession, he acquired thousands of acres of land, one league of which is the west bank of Cow Creek near Bleakwood. In fact, Singletary Bridge touches his survey. Martin B. Lewis was captain of a cavalry company that had a part in the Siege of Bexar December 5-9, 1835, and he was Jasper County's third chief justice under the Republic. He was also chief justice at the time of Annexation, and it was he who presided over the organization of Newton County and ordered her first elections.

Lewis followed the Gold Rush to California after 1850, but some of his children, already married and settled in their own homes, remained in Texas

Living in Fresno County, California 1870 and 1880 Cenesus, Millerton.

EARLY SETTLERS OF JASPER COUNTY

THE FIRST TO ARRIVE BY MRS. CHARLES MARTIN

Kirbyville Banner, Kirbyville, Texas 75956, Wednesday 17, 1971

The second son, John T. Lewis, was a second lieutenant in his brother's cavalry company during the Siege at Bexar. His grant of land is east of Kirbyville in Newton County. The E.O. Siecke Forest covers the lower third of the league. Today many of John T. Lewis's descendants live in the Bleakwood area.

JOHN TAYLOR LEWIS Source: "Early Settlers in Jasper County", by Mrs. Charles Martin John T. Lewis is listed as one of the Judges of The Republic of Texas. He served as a Second Lieutenant in his brothers' cavalry company during the siege at Bexar. He and his father and older brother Martin Baty Lewis all served in the Texas Revolution. He served two terms as Justice of the Peace in Jasper County. In 1833 the family was living in Bevil District, Mexico. This is where their second child was born. Their family was living in Newton County, Texas by 1850. His grant of land is east of Kirbyville in Newton County Texas.

Notes for Sarah Mariah Stark:

Sarah Mariah Stark was born in New York State in the year 1812 and married John Taylor Lewis in Louisiana December 28th, 1828. A series of newspaper articles titled, "Early Settlers in Jasper County", by Mrs. Charles Martin relate the following about John Taylor Lewis: "is listed as one of the Judges of The Republic of Texas. He served as a Second Lieutenant in his brother's cavalry company during the siege at Bexar. He and his father [Col. Samuel S. Lewis] and older brother Martin Baty Lewis all served in the Texas Revolution. He served two terms as Justice of the Peace in Jasper County. In 1833 the family was living in Bevil District, Mexico. This is where their second child was born. This family was living in Newton County, Texas by the year 1850. His grant of land is east of Kirbyville in Newton County, Texas." [Note: When Jasper County was divided to create Newton County in 1845, he became a resident of this County.] The 1880 census for Newton County reports John T. Lewis was 72 years old married to 68 year old "Mariah", her birth place given as New York and the birth place of her father and mother given as New York and Massachusetts, respectively. Confirmation of the identity of "Mariah" can be found in the Ouachita Parish, Louisiana Marriage Record Index which reports John T. Lewis married Sarah Mariah Stark December 28, 1828. Living in the home in the 1880 census year was a son named R. E. Lewis, age 22, Marinda, age 20, daughter-in-law, John T. Stivener, age 25, cousin, and Elizabeth Stivener, age 27, cousin.

In the 1860 census year for Newton County, John T. Lewis was 52 years old, born in Indiana and married to "Sarah M.", age 48, born in New York. Living in this home were Wm. M., age 26, Geo. W. age 24, Asa L. age 19, Sarah M. age 17, Elizabeth, age 13, Napoleon B., age 11, Martin B., age 8, Catherine E., age 5, and Robert E., age 2. Living next door was their daughter, Nancy J., age 29, who married James Herring (Listed as James Herring in this census), his age being recorded as 33 years old. Nancy Jane's birth place was Louisiana and her children were Samuel, age 14, Robert, age 10, Marcus, age 7, Eliza, age 5, and John E., age 3. The 1850 census for Newton County reveals John T. Lewis was 43 years old, born in Indiana married to "Maria", age 39, born in New York. Living in the home were Wm. McF., age 16, George W., age 14, Asa, age 9, Sarah, age 5, Elizabeth, age 3, and Napoleon, age 1, all born in Texas. From these census records we know Sarah M.'s birth year was about 1812 in New York State.

The 1835 census for the Mexican District of Bevil listed John T. Lewis as 27 years old married to Mariah, age 23 and their children were named Nancy Jane, age 4, born in Louisiana and William M., age 2, born in Texas. From the above, one can say with certainty that John T. Lewis and Mariah Stark were residents of the Mexican District of Bevil as early as 1833, Mariah was born in New York, and in the 1880 census for Newton County, Mariah's grown children report their Mother was born in New York. In 1880, Mariah reported her Father was born in New York and her Mother was born in Massachusetts. Therefore, William Hawley Stark and Sarah Mariah Stark, were both born in New York and both reported this as the birth place of their father.

Children of John Lewis and Sarah Stark are:

14. i. NANCY JANE⁴ LEWIS, b. 1831, Louisiana; d. 1869, Texas.
15. ii. WILLIAM MCFARLAND LEWIS, b. Abt. 1833, Bevil District, Texas; d. 1905, Newton, Texas.

She married Joseph Sidney Cochran 29 Jul 1827 in Greene County, Indiana, son of Glass Cochran and Mehitable Fuller. He was born 11 Oct 1805 in Sharon, Franklin, Ohio, and died Aft. 1870 in Newton County, Texas.

Notes for Elizabeth Lewis:

Her birth is listed as in Orange County but this county was not created until 1816 and the family was thought to have been in Harrison County at the time of her birth.

The marriage of Elizabeth and Joseph is thought to have been in Louisiana not Indiana, the family had left Indiana for Louisiana about 1826.

Elizabeth was thought to have died in Newton County, 9-4-1855

Marriage Notes for Elizabeth Lewis and Joseph Cochran:

Marriage to Joseph Sidney Cochran might have been in Louisiana not Indiana as the family was thought to have been in Louisiana by 1826

6. Julia Ann³ Lewis (Samuel S.², John¹) was born 29 May 1815 in Paoli, Orange County, Ind, and died 1889 in Floresville, Wilson County, Texas. She married Daniel Lewis Donaho 08 Mar 1830 in Quachita Parrish, Louisiana, son of Daniel Donaho and Nancy Laramore. He was born 1809 in Amite, Mississippi, and died 1871 in North Zulch, Madison, Texas.

Notes for Julia Ann Lewis:

Family history list her birth as in Orange County but this county was not created until 1816, the family was thought to have been in Washington County in 1815.

Notes for Daniel Lewis Donaho:

Lewis Donaho and his wife left Louisiana and settled in Jasper county Texas in 1831. They remained in Jasper and Newton Counties where 14 children were born between 1831 and 1859. Records indicate that Lewis received several large Mexican Land grants in Jasper county where he was a settler before the Texas revolution of 1836. Family tradition says they took part in the Run-a way scrap in 1836. Records do show he was an early Texas ranger in 1837. Later records show him to be a commissioner of Newton County and at one time owned a sawmill there. They left Newton County in the summer of 1860 and moved to Lake Charles, Louisiana. How long they were in Louisiana id unknown but the sons were back in Texas to enlist for the civil war in 1861. Lewis Donaho moved his family to Madison County in 1864. After his Death, Julia ann Lewis and her children moved to Marcelena in Wilson County. She died at the home of her daughter Linda Vasbinder in March 1890 at Elmendorf, Bexar County, Texas and is buried in an unmarked grave in the Marcelena Cemetery. This information was provided by Don Dezell, Great-great grandson and is dated may. 1989.

From "More Early Southeast Texas Families" pg 147

Mary Ann (Sudduth) married William McFarland Lewis, youngest son of Colonel S. S. Lewis. Known as McFarland or Mack, he gave his occupation as farming but was also a town site developer and enterpriser, it seems. In 1860 he had only three slaves, not indicative of large planter activity. He and his older brother Martin B. Lewis, laid out the town of Upper Belgrade on the west bank of the Sabine River in what is now Newton County and Just north of Col. T. S. McFarland's town Belgrade. As a city the project may have been a disappointment, but today it is a populous community, though unorganized and scattered, but very much alive. After 1850, the Lewises moved to Orange County and Settled west of Madison (now Orange). Today a community and School near the old home site bear his name. The spelling however, McLewis, has been corrupted from Mack to McLewis.

EARLY SETTLERS OF JASPER COUNTY

THE FIRST TO ARRIVE BY MRS. CHARLES MARTIN

Kirbyville Banner, Kirbyville, Texas 75956, Wednesday 17, 1971

The youngest son of Colonel Lewis, William McFarland, was named for his father's old friend and business associate, the accolade of Ayish Bayou District, and was known as McF. (Mack F.) and Mack Lewis. His grant of land is located on the Sabine River south of the present town of Bon Wier, adjoining the ghost town of Belgrade on the north. Mack Lewis and his older brother, Martin B., laid out the townsite, Upper Belgrade, in the southeast corner of the former's league, and today the area is still a populous and widespread, though scattered, community bearing the name Upper Belgrade. After the demise of Belgrade, the post office, discontinued about 1936, was moved to Upper Belgrade. McFarland Lewis moved to Orange County during the 1850's and settled west of Orange. His name, though corrupted in spelling, is remembered in the McLewis (sic) community and school.

Youngest son of Col. S.S. Lewis.

20. Martin Batie⁴ Lewis (*John Taylor*³, *Samuel S.*², *John*¹) was born 18 Oct 1851 in Newton County, Texas, and died Aft. Mar 1935 in Newton County, Texas. He married Mary E. Smith 03 Jul 1873 in Newton County, Texas, daughter of Henry Smith and Caroline Browning. She was born 11 Apr 1855 in Louisiana, and died 12 Nov 1938 in Bleakwood, Texas.

Notes for Martin Batie Lewis:

There is some history as to the wife of Martin B. Lewis being Nancy E. Smith, I am speculating that this is an error as the grave site list her name Mary E. Lewis and census data list her as Mary in 1880.

Found marriage of Martin and Nancy in the Newton County Texas marriage book, no reference to another marriage for Martin prior to 1880 Texas census.

The grave site for Martin list his date of birth as 1851 but on the 1900 census he list his date of birth as October 1852, Acie Marion Lewis wrote that he was born 10-18-1851.

1910 census list age of Martin as 58 born Texas, Mary E. Lewis born La. age 54, King Lewis son born Texas age 22
There was a son John E. Lewis on the 1880 census but most family members say this is an error.

More About Martin Batie Lewis:

Cause of Death: unknown

Census: 1880, Newton County, Texas

Medical Information: Said to have been blind at time of death, thought to possibly have been caused by cataracts

Notes for Mary E. Smith:

Said to have been born in Texas not Louisiana, according to document in newspaper she was thought to have been born less than 15 miles from Newton, Texas and lived in the county Her whole life.

On death certificate of son A.M. Lewis she was listed as being born in Texas. On marriage book record name listed as Nancy and born in Louisiana but all further census records list name as Mary.

1900 census list birth as being in Texas not Louisiana.

1910 census list place of birth as Louiiana

Death record for Newton Couny list place of birth as Louisiana

Death reported by son Jesse Lewis.

Delphia Ann King Lewis

“Grannie”

Dec. 28, 1971

by Patricia Ann Kyte Martin Rach
Interview with Grannie

Grannie was born on Jan. 1, 1882 on the outskirts on Newton in a log cabin where she lived until she was 12 years old. Her mother, Mary Jane Matthews King died when she was seven. Grannie helped raise her two brothers, Dock and Kamp King while her father William Martin King worked at logging and farming jobs.

She did all the cooking and housework at this early age. Her house was not the push button type either. She cooked on a fireplace, washed clothes in a square can. She boiled the water which was "toated" from the river by the saw mill and washed them with a rub board or just beat them with a paddle. She starched the clothes and then ironed them with a wood iron.

Grannie went to school in a log cabin up to the third grade. She taught herself how to write at home.

Grannie pieced her first quilt with help from some of her friends at the age of 12. Last year, at the age of 89, she pieced by hand 16 quilt tops for different members of her family. These are cherished gifts that the family will love and enjoy for many years.

She and Paw, Acie Marian Lewis, were married on Oct. 24, 1900, near Bon Weir, Texas. They raised eight children: Willie Lewis of San Augustine, Texas, Murl Lewis from Hemphill, Texas (deceased), Nina Love of Denver, Colorado, Ola Inman of Orange, Texas, Doris Cooper of Fort Worth, Texas, Prentice Lewis of Houston, Texas, Authur Lewis of Silsbee and Cecil Lewis from Orange, Texas (deceased).

Grannie and Paw lived in Sabine County 13 years where they farmed several different pieces of land. They moved to Orange during World War II and the then moved back to Sabine Co. toward Yellow Pine. Paw worked for the Kirby Lumber Company in Call, Texas. They again moved back to Orange where Paw worked for the Shipyard.

Paw was born in 1876 in Newton Co. He died on March 2, 1955 at the age of 79. They were married for 55 years. Paw's parents were Martin and Mary Lewis.

Leona Herrin Simmons

Narrative Interview By Woodrow and Minnie Alice McMillan

CHIRP is the word to describe this tiny 84-year-young lady. She is dedicated to the life of Godliness and has sunshine in her heart. The following story was related to Woodrow and Minnie Alice (Wilson) McMillan by Mrs. Leona (Herrin) Simmons in July 1985.

She is the daughter of Jim and Sallie (Cochran) Herrin. She was born in Fawil Community, June 27, 1901. At about the age of eight, her parents moved to Bleakwood and lived with her grandparents Bob and Mary (Whitman) Herrin. Mr. Bob had purchased the watermill, cotton gin and grist mill from Mr. Jess Lee on Thickety Creek.

Mr. Jim Herrin then built a home near his father. Near this home stood the first Bleakwood schoolhouse, but it was not used as a school anymore then. Leona's older brother, Henry, and she would tromp cotton in the press to help her grandfather make a bale. They thought of this work as fun. Three other children were born to the family while living at Bleakwood - they were Alma, Hoy, and Arbell. They all swam in the Thickety Creek swimming hole, too.

She first attended the Bleakwood school, that would now be on Highway 87, about one half mile south of the Sante Fe Railroad. Leona relates that her mother attended school in Belgrade. Leona's later schooling was at Lewis Chapel because Miss Acie Marshall boarded at their house and taught school there. Mr. Jim Herrin bought a buggy and a small mule for them to drive the three miles each way every day. Miss Acie married Addison Simmons.

As a young girl, Leona attended singing schools in Bleakwood. Mr. Jim Morgan who taught at Bleakwood School, would also teach singing schools. Mr. Morgan was known also to start school each day with the morning prayer. He later married Loraine Sellers of Fawil. Mr. Sanford also held singing schools in Bleakwood at Watson's Chapel.

Mr. Bob Herrin sold his mill to a Mr. Clifton. Then Mr. Jim Herrin built another new house closer to the new Bleakwood, where he worked in a sawmill of George Whitman.

Coming to Newton as a bride of John David Simmons in 1917, she saw the city grow. She lived one year in Burkeville and one year in Kirbyville and the rest in Newton. She and her husband organized the First Pentecostal Church in Newton, and she still attends regularly. They first organized this in their home and then had Arbor Meetings. Mr. Harrison Hall donated some land for the church. They began by putting planks on blocks in front of Tom Hext's place. From this a building came forth and then another, the one now in use. Mrs. Simmons herself has pastored this church and several others in nearby communities. She has conducted several funerals but never had a license to perform weddings. She misses ministering to the churches but is now too weak to do so.

She and her husband farmed a lot for other people on share crop arrangement. Cotton played a main role. She could outpick her husband by picking 100 pounds of seed cotton per day. Her husband was a native of Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Herrin had the following children: Jim, Randall, Lee, Mark, Alonzo and one daughter - Clara. Most of Leona's folks are buried in the Bob Herrin Cemetery in Fawil. Her mother's folks are in the Wilson-Cochran Cemetery in Belgrade. She is alone now, having lost her husband and three sons. One son was killed in a car wreck, another was kidnapped and murdered while working at a Beaumont service station, and one served in the War. He was not killed in that war but is buried in England. She has her grandchildren, some great grandchildren and her daughters-in-law. She reads a lot and if her sewing machine was not broken, she would be sewing.
