"I'll lend you for a little time, a child of mine." He said.

*For you to love while he lives, and mourn when he is dead,
It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,*

But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for me?

He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and shall his stay be brief,

You'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief,

I cannot promise he will stay, since all from Earth return,

But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn,

I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true

And from the throngs that crowd life's lane, I have selected you,

Now will you give him all your love, nor think the labor vain,

Nor hate me when I come to call, to take him back again.

I fancied that I heard them say, Dear Lord, They will be done,

For all the joy They child shall bring, the risk of grief we'll run.

We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may.

And for the happiness we've known, will ever grateful stay.

But shall the angels call for him much sooner than we planned,

We'll brave the bitter grief that comes, and try to understand"

In Loving Memory Jill Edwards Angel Sept. 27, 1955-Feb. 26, 1992

Our hearts cry a tear for you everyday, Our lives are so empty now that you've gone away

No one can tell, the pain is so great As we live every minute, each day through We ask the same question
"OH GOD WHY YOU?"

We'll never understand it, as long as we live
You were so full of life with so much to give.
Every waking moment reminds us of you We hurt so much, We don't know what to do The pain in our hearts is too much to bear, We keep telling ourselves it's just not fair.
Everyone tells us that time will heal,
They will never know the pain that we feel So we'll go on living, but not as before, Till our souls fly in HEAVEN, together once more.

WE LOVE AND MISS YOU NOW, ALWAYS, AND FOREVER

Thank You

'Thank You', those words are not enough when it comes to expressing how grateful we all are for everyone who has been so good to all us during the loss of our very much loved - 'LOVED ONE'. He was a son, a brother, a husband, a daddy, a papaw, a great papaw and a great great papaw and a friend to many. We all consider it a privelege to have known him and to have been part of his life. It's true our hearts will always hurt for him and we will surely miss him, but all he taught us and the word of God he preached will forever be with us.

"I Am Not There"

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond glints on snow,

I am the sunlight on ripen grain,

I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush,

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night

Do not stand on my grave and cry,

I am not there I did not die.

"COME HOME WITH ME"

With tearful eyes we watched him suffer and saw him fade away although we loved him dearly

We could not make him stay
A golden heart stopped beating
A determined spirit was to rest God broke our hearts to prove to us

He only takes the best

We would like to thank all our doctors, friends and Americare for their love and support during Johnie's illness.

Those we hold most dear never truly leave us...

They live on in the kindness they showed

The comfort they shared,
And the love they brought into our lives.

Thank you, Lord, for the gift of memory that allows us to hold the ones we love even after they are with you.

Many tears have been shed because we have loved one who was special. Now memories must sustain us. We will let them guide us and keep us today & always. For as we remember, we see love's reflection in our tears.

We miss you "Pop Daddy",

In Memory of Jeanne Fightmaster

You are gone.
How many time I have cried
How many times I've asked Oh, Lord why?
But then I remember God always knows best He wanted a beautiful flower
He chose you from all the rest God saw that you were getting tired and a cure was not to be So He put his arms around you and whispered "Come home with me" I watched you suffer and saw you fade away Although I loved you dearly I could not make you stay

A golden heart stopped beating
A determined soul is at rest God breaks our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best

Your loving Husband Jack

In Memory of Larry Wayne Bruce March 18, 1959-Nov. 19, 1993

*God saw he was getting tired
and a cure was not to be.
He put his arms around him and whispered "Come with me."
With tearful eyes we watched him suffer and saw him fade away.
Although we loved him dearly, love could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
his busy hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best!*

*We miss you,
Stacy, Karen & Family*

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or dropped by to say "hello." Maybe you visited for a while to keep us from being alone.
You may have sent flowers or sang a cheerful song to show you cared.
If so, we heard it all.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts from near or afar, By word or deed or touch;
Whatever was the kindly part,
We thank you, so very much.
The Family of Lisa Denise Batts Broom*

Memorial Tribute To T.W. WASHINGTON
 "ONE DAY AT A TIME"
 He lived his life one day at a time;
 Being thankful and grateful for his peace of mind.

He lived his life in his own special way;
 Not wishing for tomorrow just living for that day.

He lived for the happiness that each day did bring,
 Not in a world of fantasy but a world of material things

He lived for the good and the bad of each and every day;
 Not for the things other people might say.

He lived for himself, his family and other persons in need, He lived for possessions, not want and not greed.

He lived his life one day at a time,
 Striving for success but keeping in line.

Remember not to set his goals too high,
 Just living his life as each day went by.

He lived his life at a natural pace,
 Not fast or in haste,
 He lived for material preservation,
 Not foolishness and waste

He was not the possessor of any riches;
 But in his heart and in his mind,
 He vowed to live his life
 One day at a Time

Thelma Jeanette Murray

Thelma Jeanette Murray, 85, died Tuesday, November 21, 1995 at her home in Huntsville, Texas. Mrs. Murray was born December 27, 1909 in the Round Prairie community in northwest Walker County to Robert B. and Sarah Cornelia Stutts Anderson. Her three brothers preceded her in death. She attended the Round Prairie School which has long since closed along with other county schools in the area. She recalled looking back and watching the farmhouse disappear in the fog as she walked the mile to school, and riding the train from Bedias to Conroe. In 1928 she married A.J. Murray. "I loved him since I was 14," she would later tell those seeking details of their 66 years of marriage. Her beloved A.J. died on August 4, 1994 at the age of 91. She was his constant companion and nurse to the end of his life, even though she was in poor health. Mrs. Murray lived virtually all of her life in Walker County. She and her husband moved to Huntsville in the 1950's. For the past two decades their Oak Drive home has become a gathering place for friends and relatives, due in part to Mrs. Murray's reputation as a cook. Young couples would come to their home to visit and play dominoes, preferring the Murray's company to that of their peers. To many of her son's friends from his high school and college days, she was known as "Mom," a title she cherished. Mrs. Murray and her late husband were longtime members of the Huntsville Church of Christ and were active in the Harmony Cemetery Association. Survivors: sons, Clyde Murray and wife, Mary Alice of Willis, and Oneal Murray and wife, Wanda of Victoria; granddaughters, Sarah Hollis Murray, and Leslie and husband, Philip Bochniak of Pleasanton; grandsons, Army Capt. Andrew Keller Murray and wife, Army Capt.
