Charles William

Theodore Hagelman, Jr.

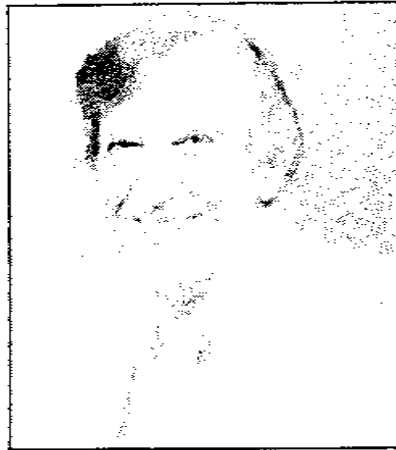

Charles William Theodore Hagelman, Jr., a noted professor of English in Eastern and Southern universities and an authority in romantic poetry and 19th century prose, died Dec. 31, 1995, at Memorial Hospital, The Woodlands, Texas. He was 75. The cause was cancer, the family said. At the time of his death, Hagelman was engaged in compiling a concordance to the latest definitive biography of Lord Byron. Earlier he prepared a concordance to Byron's "Don Juan." Hagelman was born and raised in Houston, Texas, the son of Charles William and Anna Marie Griffin Hagelman. He and his wife, the former Elizabeth Drisler Sloan of Brooklyn, N.Y., moved to The Woodlands, where they lived in 1987 upon his retirement as chairman of the English department at Northern Illinois University. He was named professor emeritus at that time. Earlier in his career, he taught at Columbia University, Muhlenberg College, the University of Houston, Lamar State and the University of Toledo. He received the U.S. Steel award for outstanding teaching while at the University of Houston in 1958. He also was an editorial consultant to the Survival Planning Project in Houston, Harris County area, and a consultant to the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, 1961-66. In addition, he was editor and author of the introduction to "A Vindication of the Rights of Women," 1966. Hagelman was graduated from the University of Texas, received a master's degree from Columbia University and a doctorate in English literature from the University of Texas. He did postgraduate work at Washington University and VMI. An enthusiastic gardener and environmentalist, he served as a volunteer at the Mercer Arboretum near Humble and was a member of the Big Thicket Society, Texas Wildlife Ass'n., the National Historic Preservation Society, the William Morris Society, the Galveston Historic Society, the Byron Society and the Keats Shelly Society. He was a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Sigma Tau Delta. During World War II he served with the U.S. Army in the Chinese Theater from 1942-46. He was a member of Trinity Episcopal Church, The Woodlands, where a memorial service will be held Tuesday, Jan. 2, 1996, at 11 a.m. The Rev. Robert Tourigney and the Rev. Clark Lowenfield will officiate. Interment will be held at Forest Park Lawndale, Houston, Texas, on Saturday, Jan. 6, 1996. Survivors are: his wife; a daughter, Lucyann Ollier and husband, Gerald of San Antonio; two sons, C.W.T. Hagelman, III of Zakhu, Iraq, and John Francis Henry Hagelman of Houston; two grandsons, Theodore "Ted" Ollier, II and Christopher Ollier. The family suggests that instead of flowers, remembrance gifts be made to the American Cancer Society, Forest Park, The Woodlands Funeral Home, 18000 I-45 South, Conroe, Texas 77384, (409) 273-4922.

Interment will follow in Garden Park Cemetery, with Cashner Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. I sat here in the last hours of our of our life together. The circle grew smaller with each breath that you took. With one breath I cried please don't let this one be the last, and with the next I cried please, please, let this one take him home. You responded no longer to my name or voice, but peaceful smiles came when you touched your cross. If never before, I now know what it must be like to see someone on their Walk to Heaven with God - to see past this body laboring so to the exciting, almost jumping, steps of a new Child of God. What a treasure of memories you have left behind for me. Your loving wife.

*"I'll lend you for a little time, a child of mine." He said.
For you to love while he lives,
and mourn when he is dead,
It may be six or seven years,
or twenty-two or three,
But will you, till I call him back,
take care of him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you,
and shall his stay be brief,
You'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief,
I cannot promise he will stay,
since all from Earth return,
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn, I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true
And from the throngs that crowd life's lane, I have selected you, Now will you give him all your love,
nor think the labor vain,
Nor hate me when I come to call,
to take him back again.
I fancied that I heard them say,
Dear Lord, They will be done,
For all the joy They child shall bring,
the risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may.
And for the happiness we've known,
will ever grateful stay.
But shall the angels call for him much sooner than we planned, We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
and try to understand"*

DEATH NOTICES

Haden Edwards McKay, Jr., M.D.

Haden Edwards McKay, Jr., M.D., former longtime mayor of Humble, Texas, died Saturday evening at his home in Humble. He was 87. The former 12-term mayor, who declined to seek reelection this past May, is survived by his wife of 55 years, Lillian Janda McKay. McKay was the recipient of a number of medical and community service awards. During his long tenure as mayor of the Houston suburb of Humble, and under his guidance, the town grew from a small, sleepy community with dirt roads to an important suburban community that is home to Houston Intercontinental Airport and Deerbrook Mall. Born on March 18, 1908 in Bardstown, Ky., McKay moved to Humble with his family in December 1919. He graduated from Charles Bender High School in 1926 before receiving his bachelors of science degree from Mississippi State University and his medical degree from the Chicago Medical School in 1936. He began his medical practice in Humble in 1938 with his father, the late Dr. Haden E. McKay, Sr. He maintained an active medical practice until his death. In 1942, McKay enlisted in the U.S. Army Medical Corps as a first lieutenant. Serving until 1946, he held the rank of major at the time of his discharge. McKay served as a member of the Humble City Council for 14 years before beginning his 24-year tenure as mayor. In 1993, McKay received the Dr. Nathan Davis Award, presented by the American Medical Association, in recognition of his long and distinguished medical career as well as his government and community service. In 1979, he received the Distinguished Service Award of the Texas Medical Association, only the fourth physician to receive this award. McKay was a past president of the Texas Academy of Family Practice; a past chairman of the Board of Councilors to the Texas Medical Association; a past president of the Harris County Academy of General Practice; and a former committee member of the American Medical Association. McKay was the founder and the first chief of staff of the Northeast Medical Center Hospital. He was a medical staff member at both St. Joseph Hospital and Memorial Baptist Hospital in Houston. A longtime member of the Humble Area Chamber of Commerce, McKay was the recipient of the Outstanding Citizen Award, presented by the Humble Area Chamber of Commerce. The award was later renamed the Haden E. McKay Award. McKay was a longtime member of the Humble Intercontinental Rotary Club, of which he was a charter member and a past president. He was an active member of the First United Methodist Church. McKay was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Arabia Shrine. He was the recipient of a 50-year Masonic membership pin. He also was presented with the Sam Houston Award by the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Texas--the highest Masonic award for distinguished service that a Texas Mason can receive. As mayor of Humble, McKay played a key role in building a new community center; in remodeling and expanding the new Humble City Hall; in building a new criminal justice center; in building a new fire/EMS center; in building a new public works center; in expanding city parks and the criminal justice center; in spearheading the effort to build Deerbrook Mall; and in offering a site for the Houston Intercontinental Airport. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the Humble Civic Center at 8233 Will Clayton Boulevard in Humble, with interment following at Rosewood Cemetery. Visitation will begin Monday at 5 p.m. and lasting until 9 p.m. at Rosewood Funeral Home. On Tuesday, visitation will be at the Humble Civic Center from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m.

LARRY EVANS, SR.

Darling, you have been gone one year and we miss you so much. The days go by one day at a time.

Life is empty without your love of laughter, your generosity, your protection and most of all your presence. Just having you around was a gift to all around you. That will never be forgotten by your family to the people of Montgomery County. People will never be able to change history. We remember you died with a broken heart.

 Feb. 17, 1995 - Feb. 18, 1995
Gone But Not Forgotten

A year ago today we beheld your sweet beautiful face
 That's when you were saved and touched by God's Amazing Grace
 We're sorry you had to go and you didn't have long to stay
 God chose to take you away with Him early that Saturday
 We love, cherish and miss you and not a day goes by
 That we don't think of you and so often we do cry
 Tears of unspeakable joy for if we pray and live right
 We'll all be together again in that Eternal Kingdom, so bright.

Love,
 Your Mother, LaTisha Collins; Grandparents, Artis & Patricia
 Collins; Great-Grandma, Emma Zeno; Great-great grandmas,

In Loving Memory
JILL EDWARDS
ANGEL
 Sept 27, 1955-Feb. 26, 1992

*Friends may think we have forgotten
 When at times they see us smile
 Little do they know the heartache
 That our smile hides all the while.
 Beautiful memories are wonderful things.
 They last till the longest day
 They never wear out, they never get lost
 And can never be given away
 To some you may be forgotten
 To others a part of the past
 But to those who loved you and lost you Your memory will always last.*

*We Love and miss you now
 Always and Forever

Theresa Ann
"Hardies" Messenbrink

To all of her loved ones and special friends, on Feb. 20, 1996, Theresa left us to be with her beloved Father. Her body took a real hard amount of punishment from the onset of her illness, up to the day she departed to join God's Angels. God saw that she was getting tired and a cure was not to be. He put his arms around her and whispered, "Come home with Me." With tearful eyes we watched her suffer and saw her fade away. Although we loved her dearly, we could not make her stay. A golden heart stopped beating, a determined spirit at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us he only takes the best. A memorial service was held at Lord of Life Lutheran Church in The Woodlands on Feb. 24, 1996, with the Rev. Charles Kindsvatter presiding. She is survived by: her husband, Harold Messenbrink of Spring; mother, Helen Hardies of Windom, Minn.; her daughters, Joyce Buss and husband, Carl of Wichita, Kan. and Shelly Messenbrink of Wichita, Kan.; her son, Randall Messenbrink of Marion, Ohio; her sister, Judith Bunde of Sioux Falls, S.D.; her brother, Richard Hardies of Ranier, Ore. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Cameron Mann and wife, Melissa of Biloxi, Miss.; Jennifer Mann of Wichita, Kan.; Debora Brown of Tulsa, Okla.; Shenell Carter of Wichita, Kan.; Allora Carter of Wichita, Kan., Chris Buss of Wichita, Kan., Becky Buss of Biloxi, Miss. and her great-grandchild, Aubrey Mann of Biloxi, Miss. Theresa was a very caring and loving person to all, never asking anything in return. Good thoughts of the many she knew, were always in her mind. She had many talents such as crocheting, sewing, afghan and quilt making, ceramics, needlepoint, flowers, cooking housekeeping, music, plus 1/2 owner of a business with her husband. The love of her job and co-workers at Wal-Mart plus her family always came first. Theresa was born at Pipestone, Minn. on June 16, 1939, to William F. and Helen Hardies. She moved with her family at an early age to Windom, Minn. where she received her church and school training. Theresa married Harold L. Messenbrink at the American Lutheran Church in Jefferson, Minn. on June 26, 1955. Preceding her in death are her son, Gordon Dale and her father, William F. Hardies.

Theresa Ann "Hardies" Messenbrink

To all of her loved ones and special friends, on Feb. 20, 1996, Theresa left us to be with her beloved Father. Her body took a real hard amount of punishment from the onset of her illness, up to the day she departed to join God's Angels. God saw that she was getting tired and a cure was not to be. He put his arms around her and whispered, "Come home with Me." With tearful eyes we watched her suffer and saw her fade away. Although we loved her dearly, we could not make her stay. A golden heart stopped beating, a determined spirit at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us he only takes the best. A memorial service was held at Lord of Life Lutheran Church in The Woodlands on Feb. 24, 1996, with the Rev. Charles Kindsvatter presiding. She is survived by: her husband, Harold Messenbrink of Spring; mother, Helen Hardies of Windom, Minn.; her daughters, Joyce Buss and husband, Carl of Wichita, Kan. and Shelly Messenbrink of Wichita, Kan.; her son, Randall Messenbrink of Marion, Ohio; her sister, Judith Bunde of Sioux Falls, S.D.; her brother, Richard Hardies of Ranier, Ore. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Cameron Mann and wife, Melissa of Biloxi, Miss., Jennifer Mann of Wichita, Kan., Debora Brown of Tulsa, Okla., Shenell Carter of Wichita, Kan., Allora Carter of Wichita, Kan., Chris Buss of Wichita, Kan., Becky Buss of Biloxi, Miss. and her great-grandchild, Aubrey Mann of Biloxi, Miss.

Theresa was a very caring and loving person to all, never asking anything in return. Good thoughts of the many she knew, were always in her mind. She had many talents such as crocheting, sewing, afghan and quilt making, ceramics, needle point, flowers, cooking housekeeping, music, plus 1/2 owner of a business with her husband. The love of her job and co-workers at Wal-Mart plus her family always came first. Theresa was born at Pipestone, Minn. on June 16, 1939, to William F. and Helen Hardies. She moved with her family at an early age to Windom, Minn. where she received her church and school training. Theresa married Harold L. Messenbrink at the American Lutheran Church in Jeffers, Minn. on June 26, 1955. Preceding her in death are her son, Gordon Dale and her father, William F. Hardies.

Doris L. Jones

Memorial services for Doris L. Jones, 80, of The Woodlands, Texas, will be held Friday, March 8, 1996 at 11 a.m. in Copperwood Apartments Community Hall with Pastor Arnold Mueller officiating. In Loving Memory of Donnie Cook

Feb. 7, 1964 ~ March 22, 1995

*Today has been one year
God came and took you home
My heart feels so empty,
And in my life I feel alone.*

*God knew you were getting tired
And needed to take a rest
So he chose you to be his angel
For He only takes the best.*

*Each night as I look up
At the stars shining bright,
I know you're looking down at me
And everything will be alright*

I miss the True Love You gave me Donnie, More than one will know, and I will always and forever be your Cindie Jo

We Love & Miss You
So very much

Arthur W. Kohles, Sr.

Arthur W. Kohles, Sr., born February 17, 1917 in Ridgefield Park, New York, died April 8, 1996 in Ft. Worth, Texas following a lengthy illness. After his parents' deaths, he was raised in a Masonic Home near Utica, New York. He served as a Marine Corps photographer during World War II, spending his years in the Pacific campaign and surviving the battle of Iwo Jima. He was discharged in 1948 and served briefly as a Ft. Worth police officer, prior to finding his life's work in the West Texas oil fields as a draftsman for Superior Oil Co. from which he retired in the mid 1970's. Art enjoyed golf and was an avid electronics enthusiast and licensed ham operator. His retirement years were spent in the Montgomery County area, where he was a member of the Tree of Life Lutheran Church. He then moved to Ft. Worth where he shared a home with his special caregiver and daughter-in-law of over 28 years, Parice M. Rader and her husband, John E. Rader. He was also cared for and visited often by his devoted granddaughter, Rachel E. Joines and her husband, Edward (Eddie) Joines of Ft. Worth and loving granddaughter, Dortha (Dori) F. Davis and her husband Randall (Randy) E. Davis of Decatur, Texas along with his great grandsons Zackery E. Davis and Austin W. Davis. "Grandad Art" also delighted in the frequent long distance company of his granddaughter Angela R. Schroeder and her husband Stephen R. Schroeder of Fall River, Massachusetts along with his great grandchildren, Diana K. Schroeder,

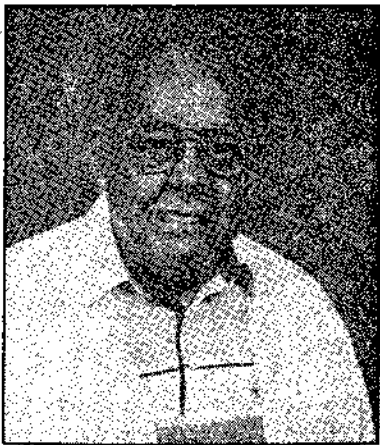

Sarah A. Schroeder, Jacqueline Schroeder, and Stephen Eric Schroeder, all of Fall River, Massachusetts. He was the last surviving family member of his generation, having been preceded in death by his sister Florence Kohles and brother, George Kohles. He had also survived the death of his wife of over 30 years, the former E. Mozelle Odom, of Hubbard, Texas. His second wife, in retirement, the former Marie Maher of New York, and great granddaughter, Ashley Nicole Payne of Fort Worth. Other surviving family members are: Nephew George Kohles of New Jersey, eldest son Randolph W. Kohles and wife Tae Kohles of Austin, Tx., son Arthur W. Kohles Jr. and wife Pat Kohles of Boone, N. Carolina, grandchildren Melissa Thompson of Shreveport, Louisiana, Yung Ju Kohles of Austin, Tx. In Memory of
JEANNE FIGHTMASTER
on this Mothers Day

"He called me by name"
From the time of my birth,
Before I had met him,
And valued his worth,
And because he was God,
He was able to see,
That I had to have someone
To watch over me
So he picked out an angel,
My own special one
To guide and to love me,
Till living was done.
Who had but one job,
And that was to be
A loving and loyal
Wife to me.
Time slipped by Unnoticed by a love like ours
Till one day
He called her by name
And with love in his eyes
Promised her all
That this cold world denies
Safe in the kingdom
Of Gods endless love.
*Your loving husband Jack and son Sam
We miss you*

Daniel Ward Kemp

Daniel Ward Kemp, beloved husband and father went to be with the Lord on May 20, 1996. Born on Nov. 26, 1935, he was raised on a farm in Knightstown, Ind. by Gilbert and Mary O. Kemp. After receiving his Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering from Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind., he was employed by Cities Service Petroleum Company. Dan worked for Cities Service Company for 38 years which later through acquisitions became Occidental Petroleum and eventually Trident Natural Gas Liquids. Four years ago Dan and his wife were transferred to Conroe, with the acquisition of Occidental Petroleum's NGL division by Trident Natural Gas Liquids. During his distinguished 38 year career in the Natural Gas Liquids industry, he served on several industry standards committees such as the Gas Processors Association technical committee, GPA technical committees sections B and G, the Gas Processors Suppliers Association Data Book editorial review board, Co-Chairman of the GPA/NGPA Joint Odorization task force for propane odorization, and several measurement committees within both GPA and the American Petroleum Institute. In some industry circles he was known as the father of mass measurement for gas liquids measurement. He also served as the Gas Processors Association's representative to the National Fire Protection Agency's section 58, propane handbook. In 1993, Dan was honored by his peers with the Gas Processors Association's highest award for meritorious service, the "Hanlon Award." After retiring from Trident NGL this May, Dan was in the process of serving the industry through his private consulting firm located in Conroe. The foundation of Dan's zest for life was his Christian faith. Among his many other loves in life he counted his wife, his family, his Christian friends as what was truly important. He also developed a passion for the game of golf in the past eight years; it becoming his extra curricular hobby of choice. Dan and Dottie are currently members of First Presbyterian Church in Conroe. Prior to their transfer to Texas, they were members of Asbury United Methodist Church in Tulsa, Okla. for over 20 years. Dan is survived by: his loving wife of 37 years, Dorothy Kemp; his four children, Daniel John of McPherson, Kans., Randall Leon of Wetumka, Okla., Charles Gilbert of Wichita, Kans. and Janiel Margaret of Tulsa, Okla. He is also survived by: his sister, Wilmetta Jessick and four grandchildren, Daniel, Meredith, Laura and Christian. A memorial service is scheduled for Wednesday, May 22, 1996, at 3 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church of Conroe. A funeral service will be held in Tulsa, Okla. at Asbury United Methodist Church at 10 a.m. on Friday, May 24, 1996, with interment at Memorial Park Cemetery immediately following the service. In lieu of usual remembrances donations may be made to: First Presbyterian Church, 1126 N. San Jacinto, Conroe, Texas 77301.

IN MEMORY OF VIRGIL FRANCIS FOSTER

A Traveler Coming Home A MESSAGE OF SYMPATHY

A traveler ventured forth one day
Upon a long and winding road
With faith and trust to lead the way,
With strength and will to bear his load.
And at a slow but steady pace,
In cold of storm, in warmth of sun,
He journeyed on from place to place
And gained some value from each one.
Until at last one quiet night,
He climbed a hill's soft-rounding crest
And saw afar a single light
That seemed to promise peace and rest.
And following its glow, he came Upon the house in which it shone.
A voice inside called out his name
And told him he was truly home.

Now all of us must travel, too-
Like his, our paths wind slowly on,
And surely when the course is through,
A welcome comfort waits beyond.
May we believe that sweet content
Is earned by all those miles passed
And never doubt each traveler's meant
To reach a loving home at last.

In Memory of Jeanne Fightmaster

*Its been a year now
You have only slipped away
Whatever we were to each other we are still.
I will still call you fatty and speak to you
In the easy way we always used.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little Jokes we enjoyed together.
I think of you and pray for you
Your name will be the household word that it always was Although you are out of sight you are never out of my mind I know you are waiting for me somewhere near-nothing is really lost.
One brief moment and all will be as it was-only better, infinitely happier and forever.
You and I will be together with Christ.*

*I Love You
Your husband Jack.*

In Memory of
Tiffany Michelle Clark

It's been too long since we felt your touch,
And yet we yearn for you so much!
If only we could hold each hand
And bring you back, 'twould be so grand!

That's not be, we wish it yet.
The love we knew, we can't forget.
Grief is the price we pay for love.
Grief clings to us as if a glove.

For though you're gone, we always find
That you are never far from mind
So now we light these flames for you
As symbols of our love, e'er true.

And though the flames are small and dim,
Our hearts are large, full to the brim.
These candles, lit, are meant to show
That we still miss and love you so!

Your Mom & Dad, Chris & Patricia

"Mother"

*To my lovely Children do not sit and frown
As I did lose a battle
I also won a crown
I am up in Heaven
I am looking down
And I will surely see you
If you sit and frown
I want you to be happy
And lovely as can be
For I am up in glory
With the one who set me free
I am in a better place
each of you should agree
I was full of pain and misery when Jesus set me free
I was a loving Mother
as you Children know
If you want to meet me be sure you are ready to go!*

Alexander Brown

Alexander Michael Brown, 5, passed away on September 29, 1996. He was born on May 8, 1991 in The Woodlands. Alex came into this world with a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eye. He loved his cowboy hat and boots, computer, and reading with big brother Bobby. Sister Cera met him every day at the bus stop; he would race off the bus to give her a kiss and a hug. He was going to be the creator of the great buildings when he grew up. On September 29, at 1:30 in the morning, a house fire ripped through our lives, taking away what we held most dear, our Alex. Our loss is also a loss for the neighborhood, so used to seeing his smiling face riding his bike or playing with friends. His teachers and schoolmates at Armstrong Elementary where he was a kindergartner and Woodlands Tae Kwon Do, where Alex was a yellow belt and wanted to be a black belt just like big brother Bobby. They and so many others have lost a wonderful little boy and friend. Today we will cry to the heavens for taking our Alex so soon and tomorrow we will rejoice for having had five fantastic years with him. Alex's dad and mom are Christopher "Mark" and Cheryl Brown; grandmother Joan Backe and grandfather Delbert Collins; great grandmother Naomi Rapoza; his uncles, aunts and cousins are Mark and Cindy, Nicole, Caitlain Thomason, Ross, Gayla and Brandy Backe, Robert and Melanie and Crystal, Kelly, Christopher and Daniel Brown, Delbert II and Christy Collins, Sean, Shannon and Steffan Sitka. Alex also loved his "Wonderful Aunt Stacy," Stacy Wilson. Alex's mom and dad would like to thank their neighbors in Mosswood, Houston Northwest Hospital, UPS, American Red Cross, and the countless friends and family who have opened their hearts to us during this tragic time. Alex will have an open memorial service on Friday, October 4 at Northshore Park in The Woodlands at 4 p.m. Any additional information can be obtained by calling Forest Park The Woodlands at 409-321-5115.

IN MEMORY OF Jeanne Fightmaster ON HER BIRTHDAY

This was always a special day for you and I.
I miss you... miss you... miss you,
But you were never really lost to me,
I feel you in so many ways...
Through friends we always cared about
And in the dreams you left behind,
In the beauty you added to my life...
In your words of love I still carry with me
And memories that never will be gone.
You my love will never be lost to me...
For everywhere our special love lives on.
*Your loving husband
Jack*

In Memory
Lisa Denise Batts Broom
June 24, 1960 - November 4, 1995

One year has passed since God called you home. We often sit and think of you when we are all alone for memory is the only thing that grief can call its own. We miss you, oh, we miss you. How could we help but cry? No one knows of the sadness, only those who have lost can tell of the grief that's borne in silence, for one we love so well, never shall you memory fade. Loving thoughts shall always wonder, "Tis" God who thought best to take you from this world of sorrow, to a lovely place of rest.

In Loving Memory,
Your Grandmother "Tea"
Children Kersten & D.J.

In Memory of Jeanne Fightmaster on our "58" Anniversary

A rose once grew where all could see, sheltered beside a garden wall,
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
 It spread its branches, straight and tall.
One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide -
The rose bent gently towards its warmth then passed beyond to the other side - Tho I deeply felt its loss,
 I'm comforted - the rose blooms there...
Its beauty even greater now,
 Nurtured by God's own loving care.

Your Loving Husband, Jack

In Memory of Jason Lee Mills

There are so many people to thank - Randall's, the Company, My-Co-workers & customers that have actually shared my life with me & my family for the last 15 years, I am truly grateful.

To Albertsons, Jason's employer who has opened their arms & hearts for him, I had no idea how many people's lives Jason had touched with his kindness, I want to thank each and everyone of you. For myself I am the most grateful one of all to have shared Jason's life for 21 years, and I thank you God for that, for Jason Lee Mills will live in my heart forever.

Your Mother
Marcy Mills, Cordia

Velma Jo "Jodie" Shriver, 68, went to be with her Lord on Monday, Nov. 25, 1996, at her Lake Mount Pleasant home (near Lake Conroe and Montgomery, TX.) with her family by her side after a one-year battle with brain cancer. Jodie was known as a genuine and compassionate individual who inspired others through her Christ-like love and wisdom. Her warm smile and calming manner have been and will continue to be felt by her family, friends, and the many children and parents who were influenced by her.

She is survived by her husband of 49 years, Robert A. "Bob" Shriver and five children: Steven R. Shriver, Montgomery, TX., Carol J. Minton, Springfield, MO., Joy A. Schuler, Kansas City, KS., Robert T. Shriver, Sour Lake, TX., and Jonathan E. Shriver, Jacksonville, FL. She was preceded in death by her father Troy Matthew Ivester. She is also survived by her mother Mary E. Ivester, 93, Lee's Summit, MO., two sisters, Hilma Jean Gregg, Prairie Village, KS., Grace Ann Smith, Napa Valley, Ca., and seven grandchildren.

Born in Kansas City, KS., Aug. 8, 1928, she graduated from Washington High School in 1946 and the University of Kansas in 1970 in elementary education. She received her masters in counseling from Emporia State University, Emporia, KS., and taught art in high school before moving to Houston with her family in 1976.

A memorial service will be held at the Woodlands Community Presbyterian Church, 4881 W. Panther Creek Dr., at 4 p.m., Wed., Nov. 27, where she was a charter member when the church was founded in 1981. She loved her work with children as a full-time guidance counselor at Giesinger Elementary, Conroe, TX., when she was diagnosed just before Christmas 1995. After 16 years as a counselor with Spring I.S.D., she spent the last four years in Conroe I.S.D.

Dear Family, Friends And Community,

There are no words that can express the comfort and strength that Ashley, Jonathan, Troy and I felt through this time of losing part of us. Through every call, visit, card, flower, food, word and certainly prayer we received strength. I knew that my Patrick, was special to me, and thank you so much for letting me know that he was special to you too.

You told me how Patrick had touched your lives and now I want each and everyone of you to know that you have touched my life.

times will be hard during the holidays and Satan will try and use every opportunity to make me sad and question; but friends, my God is merciful and kind and I praise him now more than ever.

God will bless you all for your kindness to my family. My prayer is that at this time of Thanksgiving that you remember to praise God and thank him for life everlasting.

To all of Ashley and Jonathan's friends: thank you for loving our children and being there for them. You are all wonderful and I pray God's protection of all of you.

Love in Christ,

Troy & Leah Young.

Dear Family, Friends And Community,

There are no words that can express the comfort and strength that Ashley, Jonathan, Troy and I felt through this time of losing part of us. Through every call, visit, card, flower, food, word and certainly prayer we received strength. I knew that my Patrick, was special to me, and thank you so much for letting me know that he was special to you too.

You told me how Patrick had touched your lives and now I want each and everyone of you to know that you have touched my life.

times will be hard during the holidays and Satan will try and use every opportunity to make me sad and question; but friends, my God is merciful and kind and I praise him now more than ever.

God will bless you all for your kindness to my family. My prayer is that at this time of Thanksgiving that you remember to praise God and thank him for life everlasting.

To all of Ashley and Jonathan's friends: thank you for loving our children and being there for them. You are all wonderful and I pray God's protection of all of you.

Love in Christ,

Troy & Leah Young.

February 27, 1953

December 14, 1991

Our hearts cry a tear for you everyday
Our lives are so empty now that you have gone away

No one can tell the pain is so great
As we live every minute, each day through.

We ask the same question
"OH GOD WHY YOU"

We will never understand it, as long as we live
You were so full of life with so much to give

Every waking moment reminds us of you
We hurt so much, we don't know what to do

The pain in our hearts is too much to bear
We keep telling ourselves it is not fair

We we will go on living, but not as before Till we are all together once more.

IN MEMORY OF CASEY BEESON

7-27-77 ~ 12-19-92

When the Lord gave me Casey
I knew I was truly blessed
For He knew what I needed
He knew what was best.

But only He knew of the outcome
The circumstances that would take him away
To be back in His arms instead of mine
Four years ago today.

Through now I have no physical body to hold
Of the son that I loved so
I'm left with precious, sweet memories
Because He's the one that gave me them all.

ZWERNEMANN

We knew that someday we would part But the joys we shared together shall remain within our hearts.

If we had the chance again
To change a thing or two
The one constant in our life
Would be our love for you.

They say that life goes on
No pause in the hands
But we'll be forever grateful
When we meet again.

Love,
Mother and Kids
