

Lake Creek Settlement Marker Dedication Ceremony

Montgomery, Texas

February 25, 2017

<http://www.texashistorypage.com/Lake-Creek-Settlement-Marker-Dedication-Ceremony.html>

The official Texas Historical Commission marker dedication ceremony for the once forgotten Lake Creek Settlement was held on February 25, 2017. The memory of earliest Anglo-American settlement in what became Montgomery County, Texas is preserved for future generations.

Historical societies, groups and other organizations were well represented during the Lake Creek Settlement marker dedication ceremony including, the Montgomery Historical Society, Montgomery County Historical Commission, Sons of the Republic of Texas, Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Children of the Republic of Texas, Children of the American Revolution, the Texas Army, and Rolling Thunder and its Cannon Crew.

Below are some of the photos taken by Pat Spackey and Harry Kyle Searle III before during and after the ceremony. A very large crowd was in attendance to hear historians, dignitaries, bagpipes and black powder rifle salutes from the Texas Army.

Lake Creek Settlement Marker Remembering the Earliest Known Anglo-American Settlement in Montgomery County, Texas

LAKE CREEK SETTLEMENT

THE FIRST ANGLO-AMERICAN SETTLEMENT IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Historical Marker Dedication Ceremony

Saturday, February 25, 2017

11:00 a.m.

Nat Hart Davis Museum and Pioneer Complex
14264 Liberty Street
Montgomery, Texas 77356

The Early History of Montgomery, Texas

Based on Previously Unexplored Primary Source
Documents from Ten Years of Research

Kameron K. Searle, J.D.

Read and/or print a free copy of Kameron Searle's 56 page book The Early History of Montgomery, Texas - First Edition by clicking the image above OR to order the 56 page softbound 2nd Printing by sending $6.00 plus $3.00 postage and handling (check or money order) to Kameron Searle, 9111 Katy

Fwy, Suite 202, Houston, Texas 77024. It is an essential tool for students and historians researching the early history of Montgomery County, Texas and for genealogists researching family and ancestors who lived in the Lake Creek Settlement prior to the founding of the Town of Montgomery, Texas in 1837. Hundreds of copies of the free PDF have been downloaded already.

Get your free copy today.

Discover, Understand, and Preserve.