INTRODUCTION

In 1974 I was introduced to the term "Genealogical Research." Since that time I have spent hours and hours searching for my family along with the research of many other families. It has become a way of life with me. This book is the result of some of the findings that I have made.

This is a copy of the 1850 census of Newton County Texas. In this material I have tried to find the maiden names of the females and also who the children of the household married. I also included who the mother and father of the head of the household was if known. The maiden names appear in () and if there is a question about the name there is a (?) also included. I have made an attempt to find as many actual marriage records as possible. Some are from county records and some are from bible records. I would like to ask for any information from anyone on the families in this book, such as maiden names that I do not know and who the children married etc. I have been as accurate as possible but there are always mistakes. Please advise me of such.

I would like to thank my lovely wife Tonia R. Smith for putting up with all of this time and work. I would also like to thank Aubrey Dry and Lloyd Conn for their help in the publication of this book. I would like to give a very special thanks to Aubrey and Earlene Dry, two of my dear friends, who helped me in all of the research. They fed all of this in the computer, hauled me back and forth to Shreve Memorial Library in Shreveport Louisiana and just helped in every way. Thank You!

This printed census should be used as a guide only and any person doing research should read the microfilm when in doubt of its accuracy.

It is my intent that this book will prove helpful to anyone doing research in the Newton County area.

William McFarland and Ann Singer. His other children were Mary Ann (Lawhorn) Weatherred, (wife of William Carroll Weatherred) and Jane (Lawhorn) Ragsdale Overbay.

Note: It is hard to tell which family belongs to James H. or Joseph Brailsford Hext. Joseph Brailsford, Robert Primrose, Edward T., Elizabeth A. (Hext) Mattox, and Anna (Hext) Snell are children of James H. Hext and Mary Brailsford. Robert Y. Hayne Hext appears to be the child of Joseph Brailsford Hext and his first wife, who is not known at this time.
